

Meet Doris Deiwakh Rasmussen

DORIS RASMUSSEN grew up in Reno, NV, attended college in southern California, and after graduation in 1971 pioneered to Niger and Benin, West Africa. She met and married Amin Deiwakh there, and they had three children. She taught English as a Second Language in Africa, then worked in administration at the American Embassy.

After returning to the States in 1996, the family lived in Silver Spring MD, and Scottsdale AZ. Her husband died in 2004, and she moved in with her daughter's family in Scottsdale.

She received her Master's in Library Science in 2009 and resided in China from 2010 to 2013. She began working as a writer in China and later at Desert Rose Baha'i Institute where she moved in 2014. She met Roger Rasmussen online in 2014, and they were married at Desert Rose in October 2015.

Doris writes in the genres of dramatic readings, autobiography and memoir. She has written several short dramatic readings and is almost finished with her autobiography.